

Biorenewables Research Laboratory

[ames, ia]

Owner: Iowa State University

Architect: OPN Architects

Description: New construction (occupied campus), 73,000 SF. Includes large teaching and fume-hood labs, a bio-reactor room, locker rooms, offices, and numerous community spaces. There are also a number of unique building systems including a recycled water cistern that collects rain water for reuse in toilets and a heat recovery system that collects exhaust from lab fume-hoods and recycles it to be used throughout the building.

The project is pursuing LEED Gold Certification.
